The Coffee Club's Australia's Favourite Soccer Mum presentation

The votes have been counted and the scores tallied – The Coffee Club's Australia's Favourite Soccer Mum is Ingrid Drynan of Stamford, Brisbane.

According to Ingrid, her winning formula was a lifetime of living and breathing soccer.

"I played soccer for over 20 years before deciding to put all my energy into my children's dreams, so I'm over the moon and still somewhat speechless that I am Australia's Favourite Soccer Mum," she said.

The Drynan family travel far and wide to support Brisbane Roar FC and the Socceroos, with one of their favourite moments as a family watching the World Cup qualifier against Uruguay in Sydney when the team qualified for Germany in 2006.

"That moment has only been topped by the birth of our daughter Nicole on the same day the Aussies played Japan in August 2006 during the World Cup," Ingrid said.

In its inaugural year in 2009, the competition saw six finalists battle it out for the honours from more than 40 entrants from south east Queensland. More than 105,000 votes counted, with Ingrid the clear winner after months of campaigning.

Ingrid has won a brand new Hyundai Santa Fe CRDi AWD SLX, 7-seat automatic valued at over $46,300, which will be presented to her in an official ceremony on Monday, as well as two tickets to every Brisbane Roar FC home game in 2010 and two tickets to one away game including return airfares and accommodation, and dinner at her favourite The Coffee Club with Brisbane Roar FC players and their mums.

Following the success of Australia's Favourite Soccer Mum in 2009, The Coffee Club has plans to take the promotion across the country.

Australia's Favourite Soccer Mum is sponsored by Brisbane Roar FC, Hyundai and Kitchen Connections.
